

Dr. Anane Olatunji

Consultant~Speaker~Trainer~Author

When Dr. Olatunji steps on stage, he brings more than three decades of experience and two Ivy League degrees—he brings a message that redefines what it means to truly succeed in education. From the streets of New Orleans to the halls of Harvard, his journey is one of grit, brilliance, and purpose.

Dr. Olatunji challenges outdated systems and sparks a new conversation, one that puts emotional fulfillment, real-world readiness, and personal empowerment at the center of learning. His presence invites audiences to rethink not just how we educate, but why—and what's possible when we finally align school with the lives our students are meant to lead.

“The Paradigm Shifter”

As author of this provocative and timely book, Dr. Olatunji offers a new paradigm for how we teach and learn: passion propels performance! Through powerful stories, research, and diverse experiences, Don't Let School Get in the Way of Education, explains why so many youth from all social backgrounds are emotionally disconnected from school and then shows educators what should be done to help them succeed.

Testimonial

“This book belongs in the professional development toolkit of every educator.”

—Jack Canfield, Coauthor of the Chicken Soup for the Soul® series, The Success Principles™, and Self-Esteem in the Classroom

Keynotes & Workshops

Don't Let School Get in the Way of Education

Based on Dr. Olatunji's new book, this topic provides a powerful overview of why a new paradigm in education is needed. Many youth underachieve because we focus on making them skillful but not willful. This insightful and engaging presentation leaves audiences with a new sense of clarity and conviction about the need to align education with students—not just standards—so that they will thrive!

Life After School Starts Now

How many times have you encountered students who haven't the foggiest idea of what they'd like to do with their lives after graduation? They've spent so much time focusing on academic subjects throughout their lives that they've lost touch with the main subject—themselves! This presentation shows counselors and educators how to help youth avoid this situation and design their futures.

Building A Climate To Promote Happy, Healthy, High Achievers

What happens if you focus on the fish without giving attention to the water they're swimming in? In this presentation, Dr. Olatunji helps educators to appreciate how school culture and climate can support or undermine the performance of youth. He then teaches his unique "FACES" framework so that they excel personally as well as academically.
